

BURGLAR SMASHES PAWNSHOP WINDOW

Crash Arouses Owner, Who, Joined by Policeman, Opens Fire on Robber and Chases Him—Thief Escapes.

Burglars always have regarded Fitzsimmons & Pulton's pawnshop at Broadway and Havemeyer streets, Williamsburg, an easy crib to crack. They have made several raids on it within the past few months and never failed to get away with some swag. But now they think differently. They are convinced that the jig is up.

One of them paid his customary visit early to-day. He did not know that Mr. Fitzsimmons had his sleeping quarters in rooms over the shop. He pulled out a cloth covered rock and proceeded to smash in the plate glass. Then, helping himself to what he wanted, he started leisurely across the street. But the crash of the glass had awakened Mr. Fitzsimmons, and, jumping out of bed, ran downstairs and gave chase to the burglar. He emptied his revolver at him and the burglar returned fire. Then Policeman Winthrop came along and fired his gun. But such was the poor a marksmanship as the other and the burglar got away. It is thought he ran up the Marcy avenue elevated station and jumped aboard the 230 train that came along about the time he disappeared.

When Fitzsimmons made an invoice of his loss he found several revolvers missing.

HEAD STRUCK "L" PILLAR.

Frederick Bohman, nineteen years old, of No. 148 Avenue A, fell while getting off a Third Avenue surface car at Twenty-third street to-day, and struck his head against an "L" pillar. He was taken to Bellevue Hospital suffering from concussion of the brain.

Plums in Good Cotton Goods, White and Colored : : Under Price.

Out of all the fine values that have made the Cotton Goods Store a regular beehive these past few weeks, there has been nothing to beat these that we tell about to-day. First because they are exactly what everybody wants. Second, because they are very much under their worth.

Only two patterns left, but they are both fine for shirt waist suits or separate skirts.

12 1/2c. for 25c. Scotch Ginghams.

Printed Batiste, a surplus of certain styles left from last season, some very pretty designs in the lot, fine for Summer house dresses.

Tailored Suits to Measure For Women : : $25.00 to Pay.

Use Revolving Stairways.

No wonder yesterday's announcement started a buzz of interest. Such a proposition is unprecedented, as far as we know. But to-day and to-morrow women may select from a number of fine and fashionable fabrics, choose either one of two smart and very new models, and we will

Make to Measure Fine Tailored Suits for

No More Than Such a Suit Ready-Made Would Cost.

The chance ends on Friday night. Be sure you have your order before it is too late. These are the two models:

Style 1. Materials are choice cheviots and fancy mixtures. Jacket is box plaited with blouse front and back. Finished with Hercules braid and Persian trimming, tucked taffeta belt and taffeta silk lining. The skirt is a very pretty nine-gored model in graduated plaited effect, trimmed with braid; unlined.

Style 2. Materials are casvas voiles in blue, black, and brown. The Eaton jacket is formed of folds, taffeta silk trimmed and finished with combination vest effect of soutache braid and taffeta. New full sleeve, tucked at top, and full flare cuff; taffeta bodice. Skirt is a new gored effect with seams strapped with taffeta, forming a full flare. Made over taffeta drop skirt of excellent quality.

Second Floor, Front.

Women's 75c. German Kid Gloves, 50c.

They are the finest Gloves ever sold for half a dollar, we believe—and to-morrow a new lot of them in all sizes will be here and ready.

They would be especially fine even at 75c. a pair, for they are newly imported and the skins are fresh and pliable and perfect. The Gloves are beautifully made in every detail and the assortment includes all the spring shades as well as white and black.

Loeser leadership in Gloves was never better demonstrated than in this offering. 50c. a pair.

Main Floor, Bond Street Side.

Men's $1 Negligee Shirts, 49c.

Use Elm Place Entrance.

Less than half a dollar for a smart, new, well made woven madras shirt, just such as most men will want for all Summer's wear. They should go by the half dozen to-morrow.

The madras is of the same fine quality that usually goes into dollar shirts. There are a round dozen different styles—white grounds with black stripes or gray stripes, and gray grounds with blue or tan or black stripes. The Shirts are very neatly made and each has a pair of detached cuffs to match. Outside this Store you won't match them for less than a dollar apiece.

Here to-morrow, 49c.

Main Floor, Elm Place Side.
